4th of July Parade Categories

1. Scout Groups: This category will include all levels of youth scouting groups. Judges will pay particular attention to the presentation of the group including uniforms and message.
2. Civic Entry: This category will include entrants usually identified with community service. Examples may include but are not limited to: Library, Animal Services, Police/ Fire services, special districts, hospitals, museums, schools (other than musical), city services, transit districts, and other non profit or charity organizations. The judges will consider presentation, creativity, and message for the award criteria.
3. Patriotic Entry: This category will consist of entrants expressing a Patriotic theme as their focal message. Entrants may include veterans groups, color guards, active duty units from any of the U.S. armed services, military marching bands, or any public entrant identifying with the Patriotic theme as its primary message. Judges may consider presentation, uniforms, and talent.
4. Commercial Entry: This category will consist of entries, which primarily advertise "for profit" products or services to the community. Entrants with presentations, which substantially exceed the advertising theme, may be represented under other categories. Judges may consider costumes, signs, float/vehicle, theme content, or any other appealing aspect of the presentation.
5. Entertainment Entry: This category will include all entertainment entries, including vocalists, jugglers, clowns, dancers, acrobats, magicians, instrumentalist, soloist, equestrians, or other entertainment oriented acts, including other animal entries. Judges may consider talent, poise, and overall appeal of the entrant, in their selection.
6. Cultural Entry: This category will include entries, which exhibit other cultures in a positive manner. Judges may consider costumes, music, cultural dances, float/vehicle, and the overall presentation of the entry. (This category is not intended to include the theme of "life style cultures".)
7. Club Entry: This category can include any organized "hobby" group or enthusiasts, such as: car/motorcycle clubs, or other clubs who fit the "not for profit" description. Judges may consider presentation, interest, and uniqueness (such as vintage cars, bikes, cycles, etc.), as well as other aspects of the club.
8. Youth / Children's Entry: (non Scout Group): This category will include any youth group entries, which do not fall under the descriptions of other categories. The sole focus of this category is "participation in the parade". Judges may consider costumes, props, vehicles, creativity, smiles, and overall cuteness of the entrants.
9. Musical Group Entry: This category will include any group bands, or group instrumental bands.

If you have any questions, please call (925) 757-2020
